EXPERIENCE

ALTEN DELIVERY CENTER | Dec 2021 – Present

Senior React Developer (React + NextJs) – Publicis

As a Senior React Developer at Publicis, I am currently engaged in leading the front-end development of an internal application designed for advertising campaign management. This project leverages the robust capabilities of React and Next.js for building a dynamic and scalable web application.

Full Stack Developer (Angular + Scala) – Macq

FullStack Developer at Macq, a Belgian company, where I contributed to an international Smart Cities project with Angular and Scala. During this project we worked under the TDD strategy to ensure proper coverage and code quality.

ZALCU | Jan 2021 – Dec 2021

Full Stack Developer (React + NodeJs)

I held the position of FullStack Developer at a startup for a duration of one year. During my tenure, I gained hands-on experience in developing a range of applications, overseeing all stages of the software engineering process, from conceptualization to deployment in a production environment.

ACCENTURE | 2017

Software Developer (JavaScript)

Upon completing my higher degree in Web Application Development, I kick-started my professional career at a consulting firm. This opportunity not only introduced me to the practical realm of work but also allowed me to familiarize myself with the methodologies utilized in development projects.
